K.R. Mangalam University, School of Medical and Allied Sciences organized the Virtual Industrial Tour at Pharma Synth Formulation Ltd. which is Sponsored by Indian Pharmacy Graduates' Association (IPGA) on 28th May 2021 at 2 PM. Event started by a welcome deliverance given by the session moderator Ms. Neha Minocha, Assistant Professor, SMAS & Dr. Mamta Shankar, Assistant professor, SMAS. They welcomed the Guest of honor Dr. Vijay Bhalla, Dean, SGT College of Pharmacy, SGT University & Treasurer, IPGA by reciting his Achievements. Dr. Arun Garg, Convenor & Dean, SMAS welcomed all the Panellists and participants with his inaugural speech. The event was started with welcome speech of our both panellist Dr. Arvind Kumar Gupta, Director, Pharma Synth Formulation and Mr. Arjun Gupta, CoE Pharma Synth Formulation.

There was 700+ Participants from all over India joined us through Zoom and few at Facebook live. The event was bedecked by eloquent and eminent speaker, Dr. Arvind Gupta. The Virtual tour was sectioned into 7 part in a single video with 7 different section enlisted as Raw material or Ware house unit, Quality Control, Quality Assurance, Tablet Section, Capsule Section, Syrup Section and Packaging Section. The quality of the video is very good and explanation of each section is also there in the same video. It was very insightful and one by one virtually we had covered all the industry section. Dignitaries like Dr. Jeyaballan Govindaswamy, Dean of Alwar College of Pharmacy also joined as a panellist. After the virtual tour there was the small panel discussion and raised the topic like Gaps between Industria and Academia and How to bridge the same & What skills industry want in students.

The event was followed by the Q&A session which is well coordinated by Ms. Neha Minocha & Mr. Rajesh Sharma, Student Coordinator. The webinar was then successfully concluded by Dr. Arun Garg, who presented the Vote of Thanks and final remarks. All things considered, the Webinar was a grand success and efforts put in by Organizing team proved to be fruitful under the guidance of Dr. Arun Garg and Dr. Mamta Shankar.
